

Disaster – Ivan

Company Engineers Inspect Residence in Gulf Shores

Hurricane Ivan came ashore with winds of 130 mph and severely damaged the Alabama/Florida coast. Barter & Associates conducted inspections of over 1500 structures in the wake of Hurricane Ivan. These inspections were made at the request of governmental agencies, insurance companies and individuals. Inspections were made to determine if entry was safe as well to assess damages.

Residence Undermined by Storm Surge

BARTER & ASSOCIATES, INC.

Structural Engineers

• DESIGN • ANALYSIS • INVESTIGATION • COMMERCIAL • INDUSTRIAL • MARINE

